Our Newest — and Best — William Pierce CD

The latest in the National Alliance's Power of Truth CD series, volume 10, with newly remastered high fidelity tracks sourced from Dr. Pierce's master tapes, is now in production and will be available in July, so pre-orders are being taken for delivery then. This collection of 20 especially powerful speeches brings to 200 the number of recorded talks and American Dissident Voices broadcasts in this series. This is the first Power of Truth CD to feature the voice of someone besides Dr. Pierce: former member Robert Mathews, in his speech "A Call to Arms," presented at a 1983 Alliance meeting. Dr. Pierce gives us an introduction and deeply significant afterword to Mathews' talk. Dr. Pierce's biographer, Dr. Robert Griffin, wrote a piece in mid-June on Dr. Kevin MacDonald's site with a partial transcript of Mr. Mathews' speech, here: <https://www.theoccidentalobserver.net/2020/06/17/the-tale-of-bob-mathews/> that left some people on our side confused about this martyr of our race. So we now make the entire speech and Dr. Pierce's commentary available for all to hear and decide for themselves what kind of man Bob Mathews was; his failings as well as his virtues.

New at Cosmotheist Books

With the addition of the Power of Truth, volume 10 CD and ten new book titles this month, the total selections at our book store now number more than 220, more than ten times the number we began with three years ago. Naturally, as some titles are sold out and can't be reordered by us, they will be replaced with new titles. Chairman Williams just purchased 64 titles of recently published books, many of them hardbacks, mostly revisionist WWII history, for inclusion in the William Luther Pierce Memorial Library and Research Center. Multiple copies of some of those titles were also purchased for inclusion in our online bookstore in July. Even with Jews conspiring to deny our customers' use of electronic payments, we are now selling more items than ever as customers are become accustomed to ordering via postal mail using checks or money orders, or paying with cryptocurrency, to circumvent our enemy's nefarious blacklisting of us.

New book selections this month include the most recent book by Dr. Thomas Dalton, Streicher, Rosenberg, and the Jews: the Nuremberg Transcripts, that examines closely the testimony of two of the 24 National Socialist defendants at the infamous, year-long post-WW2 war crimes show trial at Nuremberg: Alfred Rosenberg and Julius Streicher. The case against them, and their personal testimony, weighed for the first time nearly all major aspects of the Jews' Holocaust myth: the "extermination" thesis, the gas chambers, the "gas vans," the shootings in the East, and the alleged "six million." This brings to 15 the number of Dr. Dalton's books available now at our online bookstore.

Our online magazine National Vanguard added a Thomas Dalton section this month that features many of his hard-hitting articles, some exclusive to our site. Former Alliance staff member Hadding Scott now has his own section at nationalvanguard.org also. What a fine group of truth-telling writers we have attracted!

Another selection added this month is the fascinating Hunting Gernar Rudolf: Essays on a Modern-Day Witch Hunt by Mr. Rudolf, an historical revisionist nicknamed by some as the "modern day Galileo." Other new titles are Jack London's prophetic 1907 novel about capitalist political power, The Iron Heel; also The Great Hunger: Ireland 1845-1849 by Cecil Woodham-Smith that details the history of the infamous potato famine; a 500-page illustrated edition of A History of the Vikings by Gwyn Jones; We Get Confessions by Lieutenant Albert Joseph, Jr. (a hard-nosed expert with 35 years experience in interrogation techniques) gives good advice on how to detect lies and deception — and advises, "When being interrogated by the cops, lawyer up and don't say squat!" Also added is Dr. Raymond Cattell's How Good is Your Country? — What You Should Know, a rare Mankind Quarterly monograph, along with three children's books: C.S. Forrester's historical novel [Horatio] Hornblower and the "HotSpur"; Rose Wilder Lane's 1938 classic frontier novel Free Land (Rose was novelist Laura Ingalls Wilder's daughter), and the large-format Life in Celtic Times coloring book, with text by William Kaufman and illustrations by A.G. Smith.

Should Cosmotheists Serve in the US Military?

A disillusioned, disgruntled White soldier offered the following commentary earlier this month:

I see the reality of decline and decay reflected most alarmingly here in the military; it's a miracle the military can even semi-function; the people you eat with at lunch might, for example, include a “Latino” nationalist who thinks that Whites “had their turn”; an obese Black female with an inferiority complex who will reflexively defend the rioters and bash Trump no matter what; an Arab who secretly applauds the atrophy of the West; a few guilt-ridden White male homosexuals; a feminist White female who says she only dates Black men; and, most disappointing of all, a rural White boy whose ideas come from his Tucker-obsessed parents who still ardently believe, against all facts to the contrary, that Trump’s election was indicative of some Republican Party renaissance that will include Blacks, Browns, Yellows, and everyone else. It is a joke, and I wonder every day whether I should just walk away — if a dishonorable discharge, in these times, is actually a sign of life, of the Faustian spirit — rather than become a credulous, diversity-touting cog in this giant bureaucratic mess. The billions in taxes which is stripped from working class White Americans each year goes solely toward the manufacturing of ever more technologically-advanced super-weapons and an excessive amount of diversity-friendly advertising towards millennials, while normal soldiers receive less than minimum wage and can’t even receive student loan repayment for the thousands they were swindled out of them at Jewish-dominated universities. — Alexander H. (via nationalvanguard.org)

Chairman Williams responded: Alexander, your description of America’s military today is spot on. It has become, among other deadly things, a giant Jewish social experiment. If Trump wants to send in the military to quell the ongoing riots, good luck with that. It’s less than 50% White male now, and those White males are mostly either queer, as you describe, or lobotomized to be “anti-racist.” Federal troops will toe the federal line and will not effectively put down the anti-White rioters. I could see this coming 50 years ago after my four years of service in the then still mostly White male Army. I wouldn’t last a week in this new Army — not a day. Don’t desert and risk doing time in the brig and being handed a dishonorable discharge.

Do the honorable, truthful thing: Go to your company commander, tell her that you have become a conscientious objector due to your deeply held religious beliefs (Cosmotheism), and, as a man of your race — a racist! — you want out of the military and want nothing to do with its immoral policies noun, refusal on moral or religious grounds to serve in the armed forces or to bear arms in a military conflict.

promoting racial mixing, sexual equality, and homosexuality that run counter to your beliefs. Stick to your guns. Hold your head high. There is nothing dishonorable about telling the truth as you see it. In fact, a racially responsible White man taking that path out of military service today is a morally courageous act. What will the military do then but cut you loose? Then you can work for your people. Join the National Alliance if you haven’t already.

Cosmotheists, as racial separatists and strict loyalists, have no opposition to bearing arms in the service of their race. But, should they be conscripted against their will to serve in armed forces that oppose the interests of their race and their religion, they will hold a firm, fixed, and sincere objection to serving in such armed forces on moral, ethical, and religious grounds. The Cosmothe-ist Church will back up your decision if you are a Cosmotheist and choose to conscientiously object.

Correspondence

Dear Will: I'm interested in learning more about Cosmotheism. I am currently reading Dr. Pierce's pamphlets. Where would be a good place on the Net to begin? I am not a Christian like most on Stormfront, even though I was raised in that environment. I have read the Bible very closely and the more I read it the fishier it gets and I just don't believe in it.... I also don't see how so many White nationalists can believe in a religion that originated with the Jews. It doesn't make sense to me when we are against them in every other way. — K.W., North Carolina

Chairman Williams responded to K.W.'s private message sent to him on the Stormfront discussion board, answering her question about how to find more information about Cosmotheism. She followed up immediately by officially joining our Alliance, and she got right to work with her activism, telling the Chairman:

...[S]o, I was working on my own National Alliance flier because I wanted something that was easier on my cheapo printer than some of the ones online with large, colorful images, and also wrote my own spin on what I thought might motivate some folks in my area. Wondering where you think are some good places to distribute these? I really don't want to confront any Blacks right now, because of my pregnant condition, otherwise I'd say bring it on! A nearby town has a pretty White population so I think it would be a good idea to start there to minimize my personal risk. It's for our people, not the Blacks, anyhow.

National Alliance policy is that members may not distribute any material

Did you know —

- That you are part of a greater family that you've never met?
- That your life has purpose and meaning?
- That your life matters?

In an increasingly hostile world, it is time for you to come home.

It is time to take a stand with your people — for the future of everything our ancestors built. Heed the call before it is too late and all is lost. Take our hand and join us. Right now. For today and tomorrow.

with the Alliance's name on it that has not first been approved by the National Office. This insures a professional appearance and a consistent message that is up to our standards. The fine-tuned version of K.W.'s flier that was approved by Media Director Kevin Strom is shown here and has been added to our other downloadable fliers at natall.com/fliers. A version for those outside the US will be added soon.

Dear Chairman Williams: Thank you for all you have done to awaken our people and to save the National Alliance. By your deeds you have earned our respect and now you deserve our support. Enclosed find a fifty-dollar contribution to support the work of the National Alliance, its radio network, and American Dissident Voices. It is all truly outstanding! Also enclosed is ten dollars for a copy of Building a New White World and 100 of your attractive business cards for distribution. Thanks again for being such a strong and effective voice for our people and for a White future. Sincerely, — E.G., West Virginia

Dear Chairman Williams: I am sorry to not have been in touch for a while. I'm still trying to get paroled out. Things are looking up about that. Virginia's governor, Ralph "Blackface" Northam, just replaced a Parole Board member with someone sympathetic to second chances, so now the entire board is on the same page. I've been keeping my head down, staying off the radar. Enclosed are another thirty "forever" postage stamps. As soon as I'm out — and I will be out soon — I will officially join and be sending regular dues. And I will do what I can for the cause — all legal, of course. Prison is no place for our people. My intention is to use my experience and lecture those around me. Much good can be accomplished working within the law. Stay strong and take care of yourselves. — S.E., Virginia

Greetings to all: I've enclosed my monthly dues [$100] plus a little extra [$50]. I want to thank you again for the outstanding job with our bookstore. This is something of which all of us can be extremely proud. I am finding that the bookstore is a good way to introduce people to our organization. In discussions about the books I'm reading, it is easy to hand out a card with the store's Web address so interested people can check it out for themselves. Hopefully this bears some fruit for us. Thanks again for all that you in the National Office are doing. — G.B., Wisconsin

Hello! Considering the current state of race relations and the escalation of violent rhetoric directed towards our race, it is becoming more and more apparent that I must focus my life. I can not idly watch as our global nation is devoured by shadowy forces and their pawns. I want to effect change, to meaningfully impact the course of our collective destiny. Dr. Pierce is an inspiring character, someone who was able to accomplish the goal I stated above. Listening to his talks would inspire any racially conscious White man to lift himself up out of the desire for momentary pleasure into the aspiration for a heroic life.

I am looking for advice on how I can best use my time on earth to help bring about this shift in awareness for our folk. I would be eternally grateful for any words of wisdom you have to share. Thank you, — R.N., Montana (via cosmotheistchurch.org)

Chairman Williams responded: Dear R.N.: While the current state of race relations and all of the anti-White protests seem detrimental, they have been good for the National Alliance because the result is that more people like you are finally alarmed enough and motivated enough to join with us. The enemy is organized. Our people must organize also, and many are now seeing the Alliance's program and Dr. Pierce's vision as their best choices. It is time. I look forward to seeing a membership application from you, found here: natall.com/join. Joining us is the best advice I can offer. Keep searching National Vanguard.org for more information about our Alliance and its ideology, Cosmotheism, and let me know how you might help us with Alliance-building. I expect more inquiries like yours after folks listen to today's American Dissident Voices broadcast (13 June) in which Dr. Pierce tells us about the "club" to which none of us belong. Any racially responsible White who listens to this broadcast and doesn't immediately pull out his pen and checkbook and send in his application for membership in the organization Pierce founded is beyond my comprehension. Not everyone is like we are, with the same sense of urgency and responsibility. Sincerely, — Will Williams.

R.N. responded a couple days later:

Dear Chairman Williams, It is good to know that I am not alone in seeking you out. The more our enemies agitate, the more motivated we become, and the harder the pendulum will swing back once they lose momentum. I filled out my membership application and included the fee and first month's dues [$148.80 per month!]. I was listening to the prescient ADV show you sent as I filled it out, and I am looking forward to working with you now even more. Pierce, much like Hitler, was a visionary. To have access to their vision, as well as the opportunity to fulfill it, is an honor. You are not the only group I reached out to, but you are the only one to take the time (out of what I can imagine is a very busy schedule) to write a personalized, well-thought-out response. I am grateful for that, as well as for your compliment. I am so looking forward to exhausting the National Alliance Web site of all it has to offer, going back through WLP's lectures, and working with you eventually at our Tennessee headquarters. I am especially interested in educating myself on Cosmotheism; it resonates with my Weltanschauung based on what I have seen so far. By the way, my trade is construction (primarily carpentry, electrical, and plumbing, though I do have knowledge in other areas), so I have something to offer there. I am also an aspiring writer, researcher, musician, etc. Thank you again, — R.N.

More National Alliance Activism in the Quad Cities

There were so many articles in local Quad Cities (Iowa/Illinois) media during the month of June about the National Alliance's "racial distancing" health sticker that our term has "gone viral" in social media there. KWQC TV6 even quoted the sticker so that its viewers could check out and confirm for themselves the Center for Disease Control's statistics that we cite. "The government won't warn you, but the National Alliance will."

The local Q-C news hacks are becoming more and more agitated in their reporting of our pamphleteering activities in the region. One desperate smear artist, Paul Brennan, crosses the line when he libels us in print, making the malicious accusation that our organization was involved in bank robberies and murders. Had we a legal staff, we could well end up owning Little Village magazine after such a flagrant defamation as that. KGAN reports:

Eastern Iowa residents receive magazines with white supremacist stickers: An eastern Iowa based magazine company, Little Village, is reporting the National Alliance is using their magazines to promote white supremacist messages. According to magazine staff, stickers reading, "Whites should practice racial distancing as well as social distancing," have been plastered on rolled up issues of Little Village from last year. Residents in Iowa City, North Liberty, Cedar Rapids and Davenport have received these....

Paul Brennan, the News Director for Little Village magazine... said the National Alliance has been using free magazines to get their message across beginning in January of 2018. This is the sixth incident involving issues of Little Village. However, this time the white supremacist stickers are relating to COVID-19. "If this were 1970's this would be very worrying because back then the National Alliance was involved in bank robberies, was even involved in a couple of killings...." said Brennan

Commentary by Chairman William White Williams

Autonomy

Autonomy is the prerequisite for freedom. A nation which gives away its autonomy soon will lose its freedom as well.

That is a quote from William Pierce's broadcast titled "Thoughts on Free Trade." There is a lot of news these days about "autonomous zones" formed by non-Whites and anti-Whites in downtown Seattle, Portland, Milwaukee, Washington, DC, and attempted in Chicago, Nashville, Asheville, and who knows where else as this issue of the BULLETIN goes to press. Are these setting a precedent for Whites to separate racially and form our own racially exclusive autonomous zones? "Precedent" isn't the right word: Our Alliance was contemplating secession and independence 45 years ago while still located in northern Virginia. Some history:

The Cosmotheist Community began in 1974 as a religious discussion group which met weekly in the homes of interested persons in the Washington, DC, area. These persons shared a concern for the fundamental values and goals — or lack thereof — on which the directions being taken by modern, American society depend. They felt that materialism, egoism, and a lack of any sense of responsibility to the future had become so widespread and so deeply entrenched that the spiritual and moral basis of Western civilization was being eroded dangerously.

In their meetings they explored the causes of this spiritual illness: the urbanization which has been growing rapidly since the beginning of the Industrial Revolution, with the consequent breaking of the bonds between people and land; the historical failure of Christianity to take the physical basis of man's existence into consideration along with the spiritual basis, and to build a community of blood as well as faith; the spread of democracy as a political doctrine, with the consequent decline in quality and responsibility of the leadership of the nations of the West, especially the United States. Underlying these trends they saw the common problem of wrong values, a problem made more intractable by an unnatural life-style.

The members of the discussion group formalized their association in February 1977 by organizing themselves as a church and adopting the name "Cosmotheist Community" (later changed to "Cosmotheist Community Church" or CCC).

...The most essential attribute of the community is its purposeful, religious nature.

Property was acquired and improved to build a real-world community, and the CCC was officially registered as a church in West Virginia in 1987, with Dr. Pierce as its Trustee, the dual office I as Alliance Chairman hold today. The Cosmotheist worldview, unchanged, remains the spiritual basis of all our work.

The National Alliance fell on hard times after Dr. Pierce died, primarily because his successor foolishly de-emphasized Pierce's Cosmotheist worldview in favor of a broader, Christian-friendly outreach. During those ensuing dozen years this disastrous "Big Tent" strategy nearly brought the Alliance to ruin. When my predecessor did away with the Alliance as a membership organization in 2012, I and Kevin Strom decided we would start a new National Alliance, using the Alliance's Membership Handbook Gliebe had decommissioned — the handbook that Mr. Strom and I helped Dr. Pierce write in 1992-93. Gliebe was sued by a grouplet of six former members, half of whom had never met Dr. Pierce, for $2 million, attempting to wrest remaining assets from his control. I learned Gliebe was trying to sell Dr. Pierce's 14,000-volume research library. I purchased it myself for the "new" Alliance, then purchased an even larger library that had been stored on the West Virginia property. By October of 2014 Gliebe and the remaining board member, Jan Cartwright, appointed me to the board, then I was appointed as the new Chairman, immediately making Kevin Strom our Media Director. Gliebe stepped down as chairman and resigned from the National Alliance at that time.

After three years of fighting off the $2 million lawsuit that I'd inherited, along with two other civil suits that attempted to dissolve the Alliance, and a criminal claim brought by a trio of the coup-plotters, the National Alliance sold the steep, undeveloped back part of the West Virginia property and used the proceeds in what's called a 1031 tax transfer (that defers capital gains tax) to purchase fifty acres here in Laurel Bloomery, Tennessee, very close to our new National Office and where I have had a home for 25 years.

The primary attribute of the National Alliance and of our Cosmotheist Community here is, once again, its "purposeful religious nature," as Dr. Pierce intended. The CCC/NA still owns its 82-acre West Virginia campus that has all of the improvements Dr. Pierce made while he was there. So it might be said that we now have two National Alliance autonomous zones. We're not making demands to defund police or to release all White prisoners, nor are we rioting, toppling statues of MLK, or destroying public or private property like the non-Whites and anarchists do. We behave like responsible Whites: building our Church Community and our Alliance, expanding our media, putting out our positive message, setting an example so eligible kinsmen will want to join with us, and giving our people hope for a White future. It's working; we've sold more books and CDs and have received more applications for membership this month than in any previous month during the past five and a half years. W. W. W.
